

NORTH LAS VEGAS POLICE DEPARTMENT
VICTIM'S INFORMATION GUIDE

(Portions in Red will be applicable when your report is approved and a case number is assigned.)

OFFENSE	OFFICER'S NAME	P#	CASE NUMBER
---------	----------------	----	-------------

This document is important for you to keep since it is the only way you will have to refer to your particular case number. If you need a copy of your police report, it can be obtained during the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, from the NLVPD Records Bureau, 1301 E. Lake Mead Boulevard, 24 HOURS AFTER filing the report, for a nominal fee. If you need to file additional information about your case, you may contact the CSO's office at 633-1737 for hours of operation. Whether or not a follow-up investigator is assigned to the case depends on certain factors assessed from the initial investigation. Experience has proven that certain information and evidence must be gathered in the initial stages of an investigation. Without critical information about suspects, witnesses, and evidence or obtaining a confession from a suspect.

- This report will be forwarded to the City Attorney's Office to evaluate prosecutorial merit. To determine the status of your case, contact the City Attorney's Office one week following the date of this report at 633-2100.
- This case will be investigated further by the Detective Bureau. If you have questions or additional information, call the Detective Bureau at 633-1773.
- A continuing investigation would not be productive at this time due to lack of investigative leads. If additional information becomes available at a later date, the department may assign an investigator. Despite the fact that this case will not be part of a continuing investigation, it will be part of our permanent records and will be reviewed automatically for crime analysis.

ATTENTION: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO IMMEDIATELY NOTIFY THE NLVPD
IF YOU SHOULD RECOVER YOUR STOLEN VEHICLE YOURSELF
