Good Evening!
The above permit was issued today, however the check was written for $70 less than what was due.
We only caught it when the cashier was trying to balance. Your credit card receipt will reflect the lessor amount that was charged to your card. The city receipt will have the full amount listed, however that has been reversed to match what was charged on the card.
Please remit the remainder $70 at your earliest convenience to avoid any delays in inspections.
I have attached a credit card authorization form for your convenience.
Thank you.
