

KEEPING YOUR PETS SAFE ON HALLOWEEN

Halloween is a fun time for humans, but not necessarily for pets. Please follow these tips, and share them with others, to help keep all pets safe this Halloween.

- ★ Protect your pet on Halloween by keeping it indoors. A pet that's out at night with trick-or-treaters might get spooked by their excited voices and costumes, which could cause it to run off and get lost.
- ★ If you have a black cat, you should be especially careful about keeping it indoors on Halloween. Some people are superstitious about black cats and may try to scare or harm them.
- ★ Keep your pet confined and away from the door while you're greeting trick-or-treaters at your home to prevent it from darting outdoors.
- ★ If you have a dog, it may feel that its territory is being invaded by the constant onslaught of visitors. Keeping your dog in a secluded area of the house will help keep it stay calm and prevent it from growling or possibly biting your visiting ghouls and goblins.
- ★ Keep all Halloween candy out of your pet's reach because it can make your pet sick. In fact chocolate can be fatal to dogs!
- ★ Celebrate Halloween with your pet by giving it goodies that are made especially for its species, like dog biscuits, or cat treats.
- ★ If you're considering giving someone a black cat to celebrate Halloween, please give them a stuffed animal or homemade gift to celebrate the holiday.
